Promises

Today's liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God's will makes us "family" with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

Treasures from Our Tradition

The cathedral is a treasure in a diocese and in our tradition. It is not simply a "big church," as some say; some parish churches are larger. What makes a cathedral is the presence of the chair, called a catedra (Latin for seat) reserved for the bishop.

There are many instances in our country of a local church (diocese) outgrowing a cathedral. In Baltimore and St. Louis, the former cathedrals are historic treasures in the heart of the old city, but new and larger structures now function as the seat of the bishop.

When a bishop dies or retires, it is said that "the seat is vacant," and when the new bishop is installed, the central ritual is the moment when the decree of the Holy Father is read and the new bishop is escorted to the cathedral. No one but the bishop sits in the catedra during a ritual, but in Los Angeles the catedra in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels is accessible, and no one seems to mind when a visitor tries the catedra out for the bishop's point of view.

Actions

Actions speak louder than words; let your words teach and your actions speak.

—St. Anthony of Padua

American Flag

This flag, which we honor and under which we serve, is the emblem of our unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has no other character than that which we give it from generation to generation.

Promesas
La liturgia de hoy está llena de promesas. La lectura del Génesis promete un final triunfante sobre el poder del pecado y un regreso a una nueva creación. La lectura de la segunda carta a los corintios promete que todo aquel que sigue a Cristo tendrá dificultades. Sin embargo, también promete, que podemos perseverar si reconocemos que Cristo está con nosotros, renovándonos cada día, y dándonos el valor y la fuerza que necesitamos para esta perseverancia. El Evangelio promete que hacer la voluntad de Dios nos hace familia con Jesús, quien perdona todos los pecados y triunfa sobre el mal.

Hoy podría ser un buen día para que también nosotros hiciéramos algunas promesas. Podemos prometer dejar de engañarnos a nosotros mismos acerca de nuestras tendencias al egoísmo y al pecado. Podemos prometer ser creer—en verdad creer—que, aunque no estemos sin pecado, somos perdonados. Podemos prometer combatir el mal y el pecado comportándonos como hermanos y hermanas no solamente con el Señor, sino con nuestros próximos.

Las acciones hablan más fuerte que las palabras, deja que tus palabras enseñen y tus acciones hablen.

Mil gracias por compartir un regalo a Dios, Así como Dios comparte sus regalos contigo.
What’s up with this hullaballoo about the envelopes? Can’t I just put my cash or check in the basket, like I always have? Here’s the deal. Think about pledge drives for subscriber-supported organizations, like public radio or community theatre. During these drives, they often stress sustaining membership. This means giving a particular amount every month. This helps the organization with budgeting and planning. It tells them they have enough income to hire that new webmaster or put in the new seats. Maintaining financial stability is difficult for organizations that depend on the goodwill of member-users for financial support. That’s the underlying idea behind the “gift wrap/envelope” drive. Our parish’s financial well-being depends on your support and it’s easier if we have a steady income stream. To put it up close and personal: what if your day’s pay was whatever your boss had in her pocket or an impulsive check written in haste? That would make your family finances difficult and unpredictable. Instead, you have negotiated a wage with your boss and you know each pay period what to expect. We challenge you to consider becoming a sustaining member of our parish. Prayerfully consider your annual gift, then divide by 12 or 52 or whatever increment works for you. Best for all of us, arrange ACH with your bank. This electronic transfer doesn’t contain a service charge to you or the parish and it provides a reliable stream for parish planning. Fr. Robert has given you some guidelines: for families who don’t have much extra, perhaps one hour’s wage would be appropriate; families with comfortable finances, perhaps more than one hour. This expression of your love of God and your parish deserves your thoughtful, prayerful determination of what’s possible for you and your family. We hope and pray that you will come to believe that supporting our parish is all of our responsibility.

Attention All Choirs
Come for the food; stay for the listening. June 21st, 5:00pm potluck in the Common Room. 7:00pm prayer and listening session in church. All are welcome. Please, please, please could we have at least 2 from every choir? We want to hear each other, assess our music ministry, and brainstorm how we can all grow. Hilda & Rose will facilitate.

Our grant will provide drinks, table ware, and dessert, so please let me know that you are coming and how many from your choir.
Weekend Liturgy Questions/Comments — 6/10/18

1. Reserving the word “brother” or “sister” for only those related to us by blood or marriage fails to recognize the divinity in all that links us in ways we will never fully comprehend.

2. Over and over, Jesus’ words and deeds call us to consider the oneness of our existence. Who do you consider family?

3. Simply joining together in the will of God connects us in ways far more powerful than genetics. When we recognize this, we are able to build on it and make it stronger, using it for the benefit of all.

Sacramental Preparation

All First Year Children and their families are reminded that they must continue to sign in for mass attendance each weekend during the Summer Months.
